My Deepest Heart's Devotions

The message preached by Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God, that the essence of the gospel is the deliverance of humanity from its perpetual self-destructive trend of warfare and the many sufferings that result from it. This book will also reveal that his message included peaceful coexistence and toleration between people and nations. Evidence will also be provided to the reader to testify that the only proper manner for a Christian to conduct himself in the matter of war and military service is to refuse. The author, Daniel H. Shubin has written in the past a theology and a commentary on the Bible, compiled a 4-volume History of Russian Christianity, and books on philosophy and religion. Dan was a conscientious objector during the Vietnam War (as was his father during World War 2) and also acts as an advisor for military-age young men of his denomination. He has been married 41 years to wife AnnMarie, and they have 3 adult offspring.

Donald MacLean takes us through the 11th chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews. He shows what faith is and what it looks like in action. He draws out the theological and practical significance of the lives of Old Testament heroes of the faith, from Abel to Sarah to Joseph. This book will support and motivate today's believers as they too walk on towards the heavenly country.

Songs of Grace and Glory Hymnal treasures of the Church of Christ, from the sixth to the nineteenth century. Edited by C. B. Snepp Seventh thousand

A. Anne Bel offers us a glimpse down the roads she and her friend Yeshua have travelled, and introduces us to many of the gardeners and strangers he has led her to, and led to her. Yeshua is always introducing Annie to new understandings whether they are sitting under a starry sky, or in rush hour traffic helping an old bewildered raccoon caught in an intersection on a county road, or getting arrested in Washington for civil disobedience protesting the Keystone XL Pipeline whether receiving a big welcoming hug from an Indigenous sister from another Mother at a Healing Walk in the Alberta Tar Sands, or having lunch with a prince at his home discussing how to make school curriculum more relevant to young people in the world we now have in front of us. The Owl and the Prince of Peace is filled with love, surprises, new understandings and hope.

God Is Love glorifies a loving and wonderful God who sent his only Son to live, die, and conquer death for our eternal salvation. This entire work was scribed by a non-poet (me, the author) listening to secular music dictate these words of honor and praise to our God. Since these were all written listening to music they can be sung to music. This book begins with the title poem “God is Love,” an all-out joyous praise of our God, and continues with “My God Called to Me,” a heartfelt prayer of thanksgiving for a God that never stopped loving me. “Angels in Three Parts” experiences the angels’ reactions to Christ’s birth, life, and crucifixion and the future as foretold in Revelations. “In the Fullness of Time” takes the reader to a dark and sobering reflection of reality without Christ. Throughout this collection the poems explore the emotions of praise, thanksgiving, joy, hope, and peace. God Is Love is a cherished collection praising God and giving peace and comfort to the reader.

Parables, Miracles, and the Prince of Peace

This diary of the late Ms. Gertrude Kabatalemwa, from Uganda East Africa, chronicles her experiences in faith with God on a spiritual journey that led her from working in the office of the President to building schools and training leaders for the underserved in her native village. The late Gertrude Kabatalemwa labored for the kingdom of God in her native land of Uganda. The burden of her heart was for the good news of Jesus to become deeply rooted, firmly grounded, and abundantly fruitful in the lives of the people of Uganda. In the past, she has served her nation as secretary to the president. She also functioned as Minister for the Development of Women.
